TESTIMONIALS:

"Danielle is a true picture book expert and someone I trust implicitly with my work."

"I'm so grateful to have had Danielle's input on my stories. She has a keen eye and ear and is always able to point out areas that can be better developed and made stronger. She gives great feedback without trying to change the spirit of the story or the essence of my writing voice and style. Her comments about wording are spot on, but better still she has a great sense of the big picture and how to enhance flow, originality and the premise of the story. I've had a lot of critiques and I can say hers are top notch."

Client reviews:

"I am a repeat customer because Danielle Davis' critiques are incredible. She has the ability to zero in on the crux of what an author intended, while affirming and making suggestions to make the story stronger."

"Danielle provided wonderfully insightful comments on my picture book manuscript. Not only does she have a sharp eye, but she delivers the feedback in a very positive, constructive manner. I'd highly recommend her!"

"Danielle gets stories. And she critiques with both positive encouragement and extremely thoughtful feedback on multiple ways to improve a story. Every story, actually. If you're on the fence about ordering a critique with Danielle, waver no more. Hop off that fence and get to it!"
